Population & Housing Census 2022: Population of Cities, Towns, and Villages Version 2

Periodicity: Adhoc Pages: 62 Published: June 2022

This report presents population figures with disaggregation by gender for cities, towns, and villages identified in Botswana during the census cartographic listing exercise and census enumeration. The report builds on the report of the preliminary results by providing new insights through further disaggregation of the populations of cities and towns and the inclusion of all villages. However, it is worth noting that populations of localities associated with villages, for each district, have been lumped together in this report. The disaggregated populations of localities associated with each of the villages in each district will be presented in the next report following the completion of the related data verification and validation.

Population and Housing Census 2022: Population of Cities, Towns, Villages & Associated Localities

Periodicity: Adhoc Pages: 392 Published: December 2022

The 2022 Population and Housing Census reports released so far, as previously stated, were subject to changes following further data processing. There have been some slight changes in the populations of some districts and also between localities within districts due to the following; a. Realignment of some villages and localities within districts: An example is a realignment of villages between Ngwaketse, Barolong and Ngwaketse West districts where some villages from Ngwaketse were excised to either Barolong or Ngwaketse West. b. Changes due to assignment of codes and Enumeration Areas by Extensions: Examples are Francistown and Gaborone cities. The two (2) cities were affected by the realignment of enumeration areas to extensions; while differences in other districts and villages' populations were affected by the realignment of locality codes between villages and their associated localities within a given district. c. Changes in populations due to the realignment of some localities

TRANSPORT & INFRASTRUCTURE STATS BRIEF QUARTER 4, 2021

STATISTICS BOTSWAN

GDP for 2016 in the revised estimates is 3.6 percent below the level of GDP in the previous estimates. This is due to the estimates of import taxes. The previous estimates classified total revenue from the Southern African Customs Union (SACU) as import duties. Only customs and excise duties actually collected in Botswana are now included. This is according to the 2008 SNA and in agreement with a decision of SACU, which is in line with the definitions of the SNA.
